Rates, fees, and terms may change: ISPFCU may change the rates, fees, and terms of your account at any time for any reason. These reasons may be based on information in your credit report, such as your failure to make payments to other creditors when due, amounts owed to other creditors, the number of credit accounts outstanding or the number of credit inquiries. These reasons may also include competitive or market-related factors. If we make a change for any of these reasons; you will receive a 45-day advance notice in writing and a right to opt out in accordance with applicable law.

Each payment you make to your Account will restore your credit limit the amount of the payment, unless you are over your credit limit. If you are over your credit limit, you must pay the amount you are over before payments will begin to restore your credit limit. You will be in default if you make any false or misleading statements in any credit application or credit update.

You will also be in default if something happens that the Credit Union believes may substantially reduce your ability to repay what you owe. When you are in default, the Credit Union has the right to demand immediate payment of your full Account balance without giving you notice. If immediate payment is demanded, you agree to continue paying finance charges, at the periodic rate charged before default, until what you owe has been paid. Your shares and deposits pledged as security for your Account may be applied towards what you owe. The Debtor, jointly and severally, agrees to pay reasonable attorney’s fees, court costs, and/or collection agency fees and cost to the extent allowed by applicable laws and regulations.

As a condition of us granting you credit under this agreement, you hereby agree to grant us a security interest in all present and future shares and deposits with the credit union except individual Retirement account(s) and other accounts which provide tax benefits under federal or state law to secure this VISA account. Upon default under this agreement, you agree that we may apply any or all of your shares and deposits to pay amount due or to pay the entire balance due on the account under this agreement. You also agree to grant us a security interest in collateral (other than real estate or your residence) securing other loans with this Credit Union to secure credit under this agreement.

Purchase Money Security Interest. To secure your account, you grant us a purchase money security interest under the Uniform Commercial Code in any goods you purchase through the account. If you default, we will have the right to recover any of these goods which have not been paid for throughout our application of your payments in the manner described previously in the FINANCE CHARGES paragraph. To secure Card account, Cardholder grants the Credit Union a security interest in any of the Cardholder’s property, except for a home, currently or hereafter held by the Credit Union, and in addition, Cardholder pledges to the Credit Union a lien upon and a security interest in all of Cardholder’s shares in the Credit Union, whether now owned or hereafter acquired.

Finance Charges. Purchases. You can avoid a FINANCE CHARGE on purchases by paying the amount of the New Balance of Purchases each month within 25 days of your statement closing date. Otherwise, the New Balance of Purchases, and subsequent purchases from date they are posted to your account, will be subject to FINANCE CHARGE. The periodic rate will vary based on changes in the Prime Rate printed in the Wall Street Journal. The annual rate will be changed each month on the first day of your billing cycle and will be calculated by adding a margin of 4.90% to the prime rate set forth in the first issue of the Wall Street Journal published in that month. Cash Advances and Purchase/Balance Transfer/Other Charges. Cash Advances and Purchase/Balance Transfer/Other Charges are always subject to a FINANCE CHARGE from the date of the transaction. The periodic rate will vary based on changes in the Prime Rate printed in the Wall Street Journal. The annual rate will be changed each month on the first day of your billing cycle and will be calculated by adding a margin of 7.90% to the prime rate set forth in the first issue of the Wall Street Journal published in that month. The periodic rate is then calculated by dividing the resulting annual rate by 12. If the interest rate increases, your minimum monthly payment will not increase but the number of payments may increase. If the interest rate decreases, your minimum monthly payment will not decrease. The principal balances of purchases and cash advances are determined each day during the statement period, beginning with the principal portion of your Previous Balances, reduced by payments you make and credits we apply, and increased by purchases and cash advances you make and debit adjustments we make during the statement period. The daily principal balances are totaled, and divided by the number of days in the statement period, to produce separate average daily principal balances for purchases and cash advances to which the periodic rate is then applied.

Cash Advances posted to your account being to accrue a finance charge from the date you get the cash advance or the first day of the billing cycle in which the Cash Advance is posted to your account, whichever is later. There is no "grace period" for cash advances in which interest will not accrue and there is no period in which you may make monthly payments without incurring interest on cash advances or overdraft cash advances from the date those transactions are posted to your account.

Variable Rate Finance Charges for VISA Platinum Cards. The interest rate is a variable rate of interest and the rate may change. Each purchase and cash advance will be subject to a variable interest rate and the ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE may change as a result. Increased rates apply only to new charges: If the credit union does raise your interest rate, the new rate will apply only to new charges you make, unless your minimum payment is 60 or more days late. Any balance prior to a rate change will remain at the APR at the time the balance was incurred unless your minimum payment is more than 60 days late. The FINANCE CHARGE is calculated using a monthly periodic rate and a corresponding ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE based upon an Index and Margin.

Variable Rate Index. The Index is the highest Prime Rate of Interest published daily in the Wall Street Journal's list of "Money Rates" (the "Index") and is also available from the Treasury Department website at: www.treasurydirect.gov/govt/govt.html. The periodic rate will vary based on changes in the Prime Rate printed in the Wall Street Journal.

We will use the most recent Index available to us in the first issue of the Wall Street Journal published each month. If the Wall Street Journal ceases to publish the Index, we will choose a substitute index that is based upon comparable information and, if necessary, a substitute Margin, so that the change in the index results in substantially the same rate as required under the previous index. We can add a Margin to the Index to determine the ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE. There is no limit in which the interest rate may increase or decrease at any Monthly change date, although the interest rate will never exceed the maximum allowed by law.

Monthly Payment. We will mail you a statement every month showing your Previous Balances of purchases and cash advances, the current transactions on your account, the remaining credit available under your Credit Line, the New Balances of purchases and cash advances, the Total New Balance, the FINANCE CHARGE due to date, and the Minimum Payment required. Each month you must pay at least the minimum payment shown on your statement by the date specified on the statement or no later than 25 days from the statement closing date, whichever is later. If your statement says the payment is "Now Due," your payment is due no later than 25 days from the statement closing date. You may pay more frequently, pay more than the minimum payment or pay the Total New Balance in full. If you make extra payments or larger payments, you are still required to make at least the minimum payment each month your Account has a balance (other than a credit balance). The minimum payment will be either (a) 1.55% of your Total New Balance or $25 whichever is greater, or (b) your Total New balance, if it is less than $25, plus (c) any portion of the Minimum Payment(s) shown on prior statement(s) which remain unpaid.

The Credit Union also has the right to demand immediate payment of any amount by which you are over your credit limit. Your payments will include any past due payments, over limit amounts, all applicable fees and costs and the current minimum amount due.

Minimum Payment Warning. If you make only the minimum payment each period, you will pay more in interest and it will take you longer to pay off your balance.

Late Fee & Warning. There is a 10 day grace period before we assess a late fee. Your payment must be received by the tenth calendar day after the payment due date or your account will be assessed a late fee of $25.00. The Credit Union may not treat any payment as late (i.e., we may not charge a late payment fee) unless your periodic statement is mailed or delivered at least 21 days before the payment due date.

Annual Fees. There is no annual fee for the VISA Card.

Other Charges. You may be charged fees for collection of this account, including but not limited to, reasonable attorney fees charged to the Credit Union by an attorney who is not employed solely by this Credit Union, plus any collection costs, including Court costs, if required. Interest will continue to accrue during the course of collection, until paid in full, with all interest, fees, and costs assessed.

- Transaction Fee For Balance Transfer. Balance transfers will be treated as cash advances. All balance transfers are subject to the assessment of a balance transfer fee. To each balance transfer, we add an additional FINANCE CHARGE of 3.00% of the advance, but not less than $5 or more than $75. This fee will be added to the appropriate advance balance with the cash advance. (The amount of the cash advance may include a surcharge that the ATM owner imposes.) The cash advance transaction fee may cause the ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE on the billing statement on which the cash advance first appears to exceed the nominal ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE.
- Transaction Fee For Cash Advances. We assess a cash advance transaction fee if you obtain a cash advance. The cash advance transaction fee applies if you obtain funds from the automated teller machine (ATM), through a convenience check, or through a financial institution. For each cash advance, we add an additional FINANCE CHARGE of 3.00% of the advance but not less than $5 or more than $75. This fee will be added to the appropriate advance balance with the cash advance. (The amount of the cash advance may include a surcharge that the ATM owner imposes.) The cash advance fee may cause the ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE on the billing statement on which the cash advance first appears to exceed the nominal ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE.
- Charges Made In Foreign Currencies: Transaction Fee For Foreign Transaction Currency Conversion. If you effect a transaction with your VISA Card or VISA Check card in a currency other than US Dollars, VISA International Incorporated will convert the funds into US Dollars and charge your account in US Dollars. VISA International Incorporated will use its currency procedures, which is disclosed to institutions that issue VISA cards. The conversion rate used by VISA International Incorporated to determine the transaction amount in US Dollars for such foreign transactions is generally either a government mandated rate or a wholesale range of rates determined by VISA International Incorporated for the processing cycle in which the transaction is processed, increased by an adjustment factor established from time to time by VISA International Incorporated. The currency conversion rate used by VISA International Incorporated is the applicable central processing date, which rate may vary from the rate VISA itself receives and may differ from the rate that would have been used on the purchase date or cardholder statement posting date. A foreign transaction is any transaction that you complete or a merchant completes on your card outside of the United States, Puerto Rico, and the U.S. Virgin Islands or U.S. Military bases.

For purposes of this section, an international transaction shall include both (a) transactions initiated in a foreign country which are subsequently settled in the U.S., and (b) transactions initiated in the U.S. but which are ultimately settled in a country outside of the U.S. Visa processing rules provide that the exchange rate between the transaction currency and the billing currency used for processing international transactions is a rate selected by Visa from the range of rates available in wholesale currency markets for the applicable central processing date, which rate may vary from the rate Visa receives, or the government-mandated rate in effect for the applicable central processing date, plus a fee of 1% assessed by Visa against the issuer of your card, ISPFUCU, which is referred to as the International Transaction Fee. Visa processing rules are incorporated herein, as amended from time to time. The credit union will assess the International Transaction Fee to you to reimburse it for the fee it is required to pay for each of your international transactions. The converted transaction amount will be shown separately from the International Transaction Fee (1%) on your periodic billing statement.

If there is no currency conversion but the transaction was completed in a foreign country (what VISA labels a “single-currency transaction”) the International Service Assessment (ISA) is (1%) of the transaction; including cash advances, purchases and credits to your account. If there is a “multi-currency” conversion, the ISA will continue to be 1% of the transaction. An international transaction is a transaction where the issuer’s country (i.e., the card-issuing financial institution’s country) is different than the merchant’s country. Thus, for example, a transaction over the Internet could qualify as an international transaction. These fees will be charged to your VISA account for each foreign transaction.

Changing Terms of Your Account – Rules Regarding Rates, Fees, and Limits. The Credit Union may change the terms of this Agreement from time to time by sending Notice of any significant negative change to you no less than 45 days before we increase your interest rate; change certain fees (such as annual fees, cash advance fees, and late fees) that apply to your account; or make other significant changes to the terms of your card.

The Credit Union does not have to send you a 45-day advance notice if:

- An increased APR, that will apply after a disclosed period of time, was disclosed at account opening;
- An increase in a variable APR as a result of the operation of an index;
- An increase in an APR due to the complete of a workout arrangement or failure to comply with a workout arrangement; or
- A minimum payment is more than 60 days late and the credit union provides as 45-day advance notice of the increased APR.

Increased rates apply only to new charges. If the credit union does raise your interest rate, the new rate will apply only to new charges you make, unless your minimum payment is 60 or more days late. Any balance prior to a rate change will remain at the APR at the time the balance was incurred unless your minimum payment is more than 60 days late.

OPT-OUT. If this credit union is going to make changes to the terms of your card, we will give you to option to cancel the card before certain fee increases take effect. If you take that option, however, your credit card may be closed.

New Accounts. If this is a new account, your credit card interest rate will not increase for the first 12 months after you open an account. After that, you will be sent a notice of rate increases at least 45 days before the change.

Protections for Underage Consumers. If you are under 21, you will need to show that you are able to make payments, or you will need a cosigner, in order to open a credit card account. If you are under age 21 and have a card with a cosigner and want an increase in the credit limit, your cosigner must agree in writing to the increase.

The CARD Act applies to this VISA Credit Card Agreement. The Card Act provides restrictions on changes to your interest rate and changes to the account terms. The CARD Act does not place a limit on interest rates and fees.

Terminating Your Account. Either you or the Credit Union may terminate this agreement at any time but termination by you or the Credit Union will not affect your obligation to pay the Account balance plus any finance and other charges you owe under this Agreement. You are also responsible for all transactions made to your Account after termination unless the transactions were unauthorized. The Card or Cards you receive remain the property of the Credit Union and you must recover and surrender to the Credit Union all Cards upon request or upon termination of this Agreement whether by you or the Credit Union. The Credit Union has the right to require you to pay your full Account balance at any time after your Account is terminated, whether you or the Credit Union terminate it.

Credit Information. You authorize the Credit Union to investigate your credit standing when opening or reviewing your Account. We may report information about your account to credit bureaus. Late payments, missed payments, or other defaults on your account may be reflected in your credit report. You also authorize the Credit Union to disclose information regarding your Account to credit bureaus and creditors who inquire about your credit standing.

We will disclose information to third parties about your account or the transfers you make: (1) where it is necessary for completing transfers; or (2) in order to verify the existence and condition of your account for a third party, such as a credit bureau or merchant; or (3) in order to comply with a government agency or court orders; or (4) as explained in our separate Privacy Disclosure.

Restricted transactions generally include but are not limited to those in which credit, electronic fund transfers, checks, or drafts are knowingly accepted by gambling businesses in connection with the participation of another person in unlawful internet gambling.

Merchant Disputes. The Credit Union is not responsible for the refusal of any merchant or financial institution to honor your Card. The Credit Union is subject to claims and defenses (other than tort claims) arising out of goods or services you purchase with the Card if you have made a good faith attempt but have been unable to obtain satisfaction from the merchant or service provider (unless a local law states that you do not have to make such an attempt), and your purchase cost more than $50 and was made in your home state or within 100 miles of your home. These limits do not apply if we own or operate the merchant or if we mailed you the advertisement for the services or product purchased.

Joint Accounts. If this is a joint Account, each person on the Account must sign the Agreement. Each of you will be individually and jointly responsible for paying all amounts owed under this Agreement. This means that the Credit Union can require any one of you individually to repay the entire amount owed under this Agreement. Each of you authorizes the other(s) to make purchases or cash advances individually. Any one of you may terminate the Account and the termination will be effective as to all of you.

Effect of Agreement. This Agreement is the contract that applies to all transaction on your Account even though the sales, cash advances, credit or other slips you sign or receive may contact different terms.

YOUR BILLING RIGHTS
Keep This Notice For Future Use

This notice contains important information about your rights and our responsibilities under the Fair Credit Billing Act.

Notify Us In Case of Errors or Questions About Your Bill

If you think your bill is wrong or if you need more information about a transaction on your bill, write us (on a separate sheet) at ISPFCU the address listed on your bill. Write to us as soon as possible. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we send you the first bill on which the error or problem appeared. You can telephone us, but doing so will not preserve your rights.

In your letter, give us the following information:

- ⇒ Your name and account number
- ⇒ The dollar amount of the suspected error
- ⇒ Describe the error and explain, if you can, why you believe there is an error. If you need more information, describe the item you are not sure about.

If you have authorized us to pay your credit card bill automatically from your savings or checking account, you can stop the payment on any amount you think is wrong. To stop the payment your letter must reach us three business days before the automatic payment is scheduled to occur.

Your Rights and Our Responsibilities After We Receive Your Written Notice

We must acknowledge your letter within 30 days, unless we have corrected the error by then. Within 90 days, we must either correct the error or explain why we believe the bill was correct.

After we receive your letter, we cannot try to collect any amount you question, or report you as delinquent. We can continue to bill you for the amount you question, including finance charges, and we can apply any unpaid amount against your credit limit. You do not have to pay any questioned amount while we are investigating, but you are still obligated to pay the parts of your bill that are not in question. If we find that we made a mistake on your bill, you will not have to pay any finance charges related to any questioned amount. If we didn't make a mistake, you may have to pay finance charges, and you will have to make up any missed payments on the questioned amount. In either case, we will send you a statement of the amount you owe and the date that it is due.

If you fail to pay the amount that we think you owe, we may report you as delinquent. However, if our explanation does not satisfy you and you write to us within ten days telling us that you still refuse to pay, we must tell anyone we report you to that you have a question about your bill. And, we must tell you the name of anyone we reported you to. We must tell anyone we report you to that the matter has been settled between us when it finally is. If we don't follow these rules, we can't collect the first $50 of the questioned amount, even if your bill was correct.

Special Rule for Credit Card Purchases

If you have a problem with the quality of property or services that you purchased with a credit card and you have tried in good faith to correct the problem with the merchant, you may have the right not to pay the remaining amount due on the property or services. There are two limitations to this right:

- You must have made the purchase in your home state or, if not within your home state, within 100 miles of your current mailing address; and
- The purchase price must have been more than $50.

These limitations do not apply if we own or operate the merchant or if we mailed you the advertisement for the property or services.
